Interprofessional funds and activation of the aggregate account

With message no. 5957 of May 17, 2018, ANPAL provided clarifications on the activation of “aggregate accounts”, managed by interprofessional funds, by employers.

An “aggregate account” must be activated by all companies within a group of companies. This rule is only to be disappplied when a company – either the holding or another member of the group – has no possibility of joining the fund as, for example, when it operates without subordinate employees.

Self-employed contractors: coverage for maternity and illness

With circular message no. 69 of May 11, 2018, INPS examines regulations set by articles 1, 14 and 5 of Law no. 81/2017, confirming that some of the coverage set for pregnancy, illness and injury is to be extended to self-employed contractors.

The Institute specifically defines the range of application of the discipline, with focus on the application of said regulations to self-employed contractors (art. 2222 c.c.); those who perform intellectual professions (art. 2229 c.c.) special types of relationship; coordinated and continuous collaborations (co.co.co.). Entrepreneurs are instead not included.

The Institute provides, finally, instructions on the possible suspension of contribution in case of illness or grave injury, suitable to interrupt work for over 60 days.

Withdrawal of old vouchers: extension of deadline

On May 9, 2018, INPS notified the extension of terms for the request of reimbursement of vouchers for ancillary work bought before March 17, 2018 and not used by the end of 2017.

Term is extended to June 30, 2018. SC52 form will have to be used for the request of reimbursement.

Exposition register: INAIL proceeds with implementation

With Circular message no. 22/2015, INAIL informs that, effective on May 14, 2018, the “register of exposition” is implemented to allow employers without a territorial insurance position (PAT) to submit said registers to INAIL and competent ASL offices.

The online register will be immediately accessible to ASL staff via INAIL web portal.
